

Hospital Chaplaincy Team

What's involved?

Visiting Princess Royal Hospital wards to invite people to the Sunday service in chapel, and then assisting people from the wards to the chapel and joining in the service.

What kind of person is needed?

People who are comfortable talking to people they don't know, initiating conversations and listening well.

What's the commitment?

The team is on duty about once every couple of months, visiting the wards in advance and then spending Sunday morning in the hospital at the chapel service. All team members need to complete a Hospital Safeguarding check and training.

What training is available?

Full training is provided by the Hospital Chaplains.
