

Luncheon Sunday

What's involved?

Hosting two or three guests who otherwise might be on their own for Sunday Lunch.

What kind of person is needed?

Anybody who is willing to open their homes and families and guests exercising their gifts of hospitality.

What's the commitment?

Luncheon Sunday happens approximately once every two months. You would be notified by the coordinator who your guests will be that month, and it is up to you to contact them, invite them, and check if there are any dietary requirements.

What training is available?

No specific training, but if you would like to attend Luncheon Sunday at someone else's home to see how they do it, that could be arranged.
