

Sides Persons

What's involved?

Greeting people at the door at Sunday services, handing out books, service sheets and notices. Taking up the collection. Assisting the on duty wardens in welcoming people and making them feel at home.

What kind of person is needed?

People who have a warm smile and are good at talking to and welcoming people they may not know. Flexibility and a willingness and ability to be proactive in helping people.

What's the commitment?

Sides persons are expected to be at church from 10am for the morning service, and about 6pm for the evening service. Most team members are on duty about once every 6 weeks.

What training is available?

Training will be provided by the wardens, and new members will be partnered with an existing member of the team for their first duties.
