Please pray:

For the families and friends of Tony Stringer whose funeral was held this week.

As the route out of lockdown becomes somewhat clearer, we pray for wisdom and insight for those making decisions about when and how in person church services and activities might restart. We pray for grace and understanding with each other as we make these difficult decisions.

As Eating Disorders Awareness week begins, we pray for all those who live with eating disorders, especially those for whom lockdown has put under stress. We pray that people living with these disorders will be able to access the support and treatment they need, and will be free.

We pray for the recruitment of a new Children's and Families Outreach Worker. We pray that God will be prompting the right person to apply, and that the recruitment team will have the insight to discern who this is.

Bringing Hope

How to Creatively Share Faith in the Storms

Led by Chris Duffett, a Baptist Minister, an experienced and effective evangelist and a trainer of evangelists.

Chris is passionate about sharing Jesus wherever he can, and encouraging others to do the same. He is an engaging speaker, and has a host of creative ideas and means to help Christians be and share the good news. He will be with us (via Zoom) on Saturday March 13th 10am – 11.30am and will offer ten different creative ways we can share the gospel in our current circumstances.
