

All In

What's involved?

Helping to run our monthly All In services. There are a variety of roles including planning sessions, presenting dramas, reading, and leading prayer activities.

What kind of person is needed?

People of any age who have a heart to facilitate our worship together in a way that includes. The different roles require different skills and gifts.

What's the commitment?

All In runs monthly, on a Sunday morning. We ask the team to be in church by 10am in order to set, have final run throughs, and pray together.

What training is available?

Depending on the role, different kinds of training are available. It is possible to join the planning team to get the gist of it before committing to an upfront role.

Who should I speak to? Caroline Gwilliam
caroline@allsaints-wellington.org

